PORT COVINGTON

Port Covington is a mixed-use waterfront community in South Baltimore that offers amazing waterfront experiences, with 2.5 miles of waterfront on the Middle Branch of the Patapsco River. Port Covington offers celebrated destinations and great access to everything Baltimore has to offer – and the most convenient marina location in the City.

Many celebrated destinations are currently in Port Covington, including Sagamore Spirit Distillery and Nick's Fish House (which is also a Canton Kayak Club location).

Nearby destinations and amenities include the restaurants, bars and grocery stores in Federal Hill. Sports and entertainment venues are just around the corner. The world renowned Inner Harbor as well as parks and monuments like Heart-Miller Island and Fort McHenry are just a short boat ride away.
